

Republic of Srpska
Investment-Development Bank

LETTER OF INVITATION

Dear Sir/Madam,

It is my honor and pleasure to invite you to the Invest Forum (hereinafter: the Forum) entitled "Take the chance, invest in Srpska" organized by the Republic of Srpska Investment-Development Bank in cooperation with the Government of the Republic of Srpska, which will take place in the city of Banja Luka, in the concert hall of the Cultural Center Banski dvor, 19 September 2023.

The Forum will gather eminent representatives of domestic and international institutions, businessmen and organizations who will have, at one place, an opportunity to get to know the Republic of Srpska as a desirable investment destination, public investments, business projects and establish future business cooperation.

At the Forum, it is planned to present specific offers for investments in the Republic of Srpska, from public projects to investments in business and industrial zones, from business connections between international businessmen and businessmen from the Republic of Srpska through B2B meetings to the presentation of offers for the sale of companies from the Republic of Srpska or some of their projects to domestic and international businessmen so that they could start business activities on the market of the Republic of Srpska, the Western Balkans and the European Union.

Please confirm your participation via the web link www.bforsrpska.com.

The Agenda of the Forum will be available on the official website of the Forum and sent to registered participants.

I look forward to your arrival at the Forum and your future business activities in the Republic of Srpska.

Respectfully Yours!
